

QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT FOR STATION WPGC-FM

1ST QUARTER, 2016 (January 1 through March 31)

Prepared by:

Guy Lambert, News Director/Public Affairs Coordinator

Issues of Concern to Washington, DC, Maryland, and Virginia

Addressed in Responsive Programming in 1st Quarter, 2016

WPGC-FM, WPGC-HD2

Quarterly Issues Program Report

1st Quarter

(01/01/2016-03/31/2016)

Subjects and Description of Issue of Concern:

1. Crime & Violence

Discuss High Risk Youth facing continuous challenges.

The relationship between area youth and police

2. Culture

Students are placed with mentoring adults who volunteer their time to create healthy relationships through educational and social skills emphasis

3. Educational/InReach

The discussion of HIV and AIDS and how to combat it was discussed

4. Financial/Scholarship Benefit

The show focused on the lack of minorities on corporate boards of Fortune 500 companies.

5. Health

The show focused on Black men's Health and Culture. During which the show focused on the lack of black men taking good care of themselves from getting yearly exams

WPGC-FM Programs That Address Community Issues
(Regularly Scheduled Public Affairs Programs)
1st QUARTER, 2016

CRIME & VIOLENCE

Program: "Community Focus"

Host: Guy Lambert

Issues: Crime/Violence

Aired: 01-03-16

Time: 24:02 of a 30 minute show

Guest: Lisa Avery, Project Director CPCP Clergy Police Community Partnership

This show was about a program that works with High Risk Youth and Returning EX-Offenders. They work to create programs within the community through the help of churches and other outreach programs in the East of the River Community. The program also looks to raise funding to work with urban youth, to take them out of their community to participate in various activities. Lastly the interview focuses on a new initiative that is in progress that changing the focus from events and activities to one on one mentoring to watch continual development from each individual.

Program: "Community Focus"

Host: Guy Lambert

Issues: Crime/Violence

Aired: 02-07-16

Time: 26:10 of a 30 minute show

Guest: Diane Akers, Women's Lift Time Organization

This is a service program that caters to women, children and senior citizens. The program is 12 years old and is currently working with displaced minorities. The services that they offer are "Bridging the Gap" which brings together Africans Americans. Another program they offer is "Ladies Night Out" which is a program centered towards woman, and their issues. Then there is "Kids Night Out" which is held every Friday night from 6pm-12am where youth can come play and learn. The last program is called "Precious Jewels program, which caters to young women and their personal issues.

WPGC-FM Programs That Address Community Issues
(Regularly Scheduled Public Affairs Programs)
1st QUARTER, 2016

CULTURE

Program: "Community Focus"

Host: Guy Lambert

Issues: Culture

Aired: 01-10-16

Time: 22:37 of a 30 minute show

Guest: Ebony Willis, East Capitol Center for Change

This show focused on a school based program for youth in grades 3-9th. Students are placed with mentoring adults who volunteer their time to create healthy relationships through educational and social skills emphasis.

The program hopes to educate the youth in order to divert from delinquency activity that may halt positive growth in the future.

Program: "Community Focus"

Host: Guy Lambert

Issues: Culture

Aired: 03-13-16

Time: 27:37 of a 30 minute show

Guest: Stephanie Green/ Washington Youth Choir

This show was about a new DC choral program that started 5 years ago. This program is open to all DC youth from 9th-12th grades. This program is not only a choir program but an educational vehicle used to develop DC City youth. The program is located at New Mount Calvary Baptist Church facility. The next auditions will take place March 21st from 10am -1pm.

Program: "Community Focus"

Host: Guy Lambert

Issues: Culture

Aired: 02-28-16

Time: 22:57 of a 30 minute show

Guest: Padra Hanne/ Self Aware R US

Self-Aware-R-US is an uplifting program which offers a specific program titled "Becoming Self Aware." This program was started back in 1998 and caters to young minority, high school aged children by covering five major points: faith, education, attitude, addiction, and relationships. Currently there is no cost for individuals and donations are needed because there is no government funding. The program is located in Woodbridge, VA.

Program: "Community Focus"

Host: Guy Lambert

Issues: Culture

Aired: 03-27-16

Time: 25:26 of a 30 minute show

Guest: Jean Marshall/ Chairwoman for Board of Childcare

This show was about promoting awareness towards children living in Foster care in DC. Jean discusses how the Board of Childcare works in collaboration with foster homes to create comfortable environments for youth looking to be adopted or placed with relatives. The program also allows for youth and teens to continue foster care up to the age of 21 if youth is being productive. The program offers a small stipend to help cover the needs of children.

WPGC-FM Programs That Address Community Issues
(Regularly Scheduled Public Affairs Programs)
1st QUARTER, 2016

EDUCATION

Program: "Community Focus"

Host: Guy Lambert

Issues: Education

Aired: 02-14-16

Time: 28:04 of a 30 minute show

Guest: Michael Langston Pres & CEO Mid-Atlantic

This unique organization provides access and care to the underserved. During the interview we discussed the community center and its mission. The services provided varied focuses on HIV, primary care services as well as pediatric medicines. The organization also has a relationship with many hospitals so that individuals who have acute needs can be addressed. In the end, we discussed some of the challenges with being available to so many people.

Program: "Community Focus"

Host: Guy Lambert

Issues: Education

Aired: 03-20-16

Time: 21:47 of a 30 minute show

Guest: Wendy Briscoe/ Whitman Walker Clinic

This program was about discussion of HIV and AIDS education. The discussion starts off with a brief discussion on how HIV is transmitted and how someone may avoid transmission. From there Mrs. Briscoe discusses specific ways to get tested. Whether it's through blood test, or swab testing. She then moves on to talk about the prevalence of AIDS in the community and ways that one can become more aware of this epidemic.

WPGC-FM Programs That Address Community Issues

(Regularly Scheduled Public Affairs Programs)

1st QUARTER, 2016

FINANCIAL

Program: "Community Focus"

Host: Guy Lambert

Issues: Financial

Aired: 01-17-16

Time: 23:16 of a 30 minute show

Guest: Dennis Dowdell, National Leadership Institute

The show focused on the lack of minorities on corporate boards of Fortune 500 companies. The show discussed the exact number of minorities on these boards and the industries they represent. The industries that did not have any minorities were featured as well. The lack of women on the boards was also discussed as well as how a person seeks a board position.

Program: "Community Focus"

Host: Guy Lambert

Issues: Financial

Aired: 03-06-16

Time: 22:49 of a 30 minute show

Guest: Jerry Johnson/ DC Water and Sewer Authority

This show focused on the DC WASA DC water and sewer authority upcoming opportunities to do business with them and be awarded contracts if you are a minority business. The expansion of the DC WASA services had troubleshooting was discussed how lead was previously contaminating the water and how that has changed. The interview ended with the employment services DC WASA DC water and sewer provides as well.

WPGC-FM Programs That Address Community Issues
(Regularly Scheduled Public Affairs Programs)
1st QUARTER, 2016

HEALTH

Program: "Community Focus"

Host: Guy Lambert

Issues: Health

Aired: 01-24-16

Time: 25:12 of a 30 minute show

Guest: Juanita Price/ North Community Mental Health Center

This show focuses on the 22nd Annual race for Mental Health Certified 5k Walk/Run. Mental Health and discrimination was discussed along with mental illness, housing discrimination and DC residents and how the community-at-large can help.

Program: "Community Focus"

Host: Guy Lambert

Issues: Health

Aired: 02-21-16

Time: 28:02 of a 30 minute show

Guest: Dr. Steven Clement/ ACT Now Diabetes Prevention Coordinator

This show focused on a new Act Now Diabetes Prevention Study given at Georgetown Hospital to help screen individuals whom may be pre-Diabetic. The risk factors for pre-diabetes and diabetes were discussed. The particular drug used in the study, the purpose of the study and general diabetes prevention through lifestyle changes was discussed in detail as well.

WPGC-FM Programs That Address Community Issues
(Regularly Scheduled Public Affairs Programs)
1st QUARTER, 2016

CULTURE

Program: "Community Focus"

Host: Guy Lambert

Issues: Health

Aired: 01-31-16

Time: 21:51 of a 30 minute show

Guest: Dr. Keith Hunter "Black Men's Health and Culture"

The show focused on Black men's Health and Culture. During which the show focused on the lack of black men taking good care of themselves from getting yearly exams, eating healthy, and exercising so that they can make it an everyday apart of their lives and culture. The show also encouraged men to go to the doctor on a regular basis. Lack of health insurance and fear are some of the reasons discussed why black men neglect themselves. Advice for helping women to encourage their men to stay healthy was included as well.